WHAT'S INCLUDED?

- 2 color and 2 black/white "What's Wrong?" picture scenes targeting vocalic /r/, /s/, /z/, /sh/, /ch/, /l/, /k/, /g/ in a carryover activity.
- 1 color and 1 black/white "What's Wrong?" picture scene targeting /th/ in a carryover activity.
- 1 color and 1 black/white, error free scene in case your students need an error free picture to compare to.

DIRECTIONS:

- Circle, point to, or color (black and white picture scenes) the errors.
- Laminate for multiple uses.
- Use your best sounds to describe what is wrong in the scene.
- Don't forget to use complete sentences.
- See if you can find all the errors!
 - A word list is provided. Target words/sounds range from 10-18 words per picture in all positions.
- Students can also describe the color and error free scene using complete sentences and their best sounds.
- Extend the Activity: Use the pictures to work on written language as well. Have students write down what is wrong with the scene using complete sentences. Then they can read their writing sample back while practicing using their best speech sounds!

↑ Error free picture scene (in case your students need to see what the picture should look like).
